HOLY MASS ETIQUETTE

We have a responsibility to one another as members of the Body of Christ. How we act at Mass should help us pray, listen and worship as well as help our neighbors do the same. We should therefore remember:

1. that Mass is holy.
2. to dress appropriately and modestly.
3. to be on time.
4. to turn cell phones and pagers off.
5. to genuflect toward the tabernacle before sitting down.
6. to stay until the end of Mass; that is, until the priest is in the vestibule.

PLEDGE CHALLENGE UPDATE

There is only a short time remaining on the gift match challenge. Many have already responded most generously to the matching gift challenge. Any new pledge or donation to the Building Fund that is received by June 28 will be matched by one of our parish families. Please help us far exceed our $13.5 million campaign goal! Thank you.

PRE-BAPTISM WORKSHOP

A Pre-Baptism Workshop is usually conducted once a month in the school Media Center (library) to prepare parents and godparents for one of the most significant events in their lives and most certainly in the lives of their children. Parents are required to attend a class prior to their child's baptism (unless they have already done so within the past three years). It is not necessary to register for the workshop.

Due to the 4th of July holiday, we will not hold a Pre-Baptism Workshop in July. Baptisms will be celebrated on the first and third Sunday of July as usual, however. The next Pre-Baptism Workshop will be conducted on August 7st.

Adapted from Faith Sharing for Small Church Communities

READINGS FOR THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 26, 2011

First Reading: Dt. 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Second Reading: 1 Cor. 10:16-17

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus provides "real food" and "real drink" in the Eucharist—his own "flesh" and "blood" to sustain the believer. When we partake of the Eucharist, we have a share in eternal life—here and now.

CONNECTION TO LIFE:

Although receiving the body and blood of Christ is personal, it is not private. What commitments does the Eucharist call you to?

People quarreled over Jesus and what he expected of them. What does he expect of you in your life?

Christ gives us fullness of life. Describe what fullness of life is for you.

Here's What's Happening

A FATHER'S DAY PRAYER FOR FATHERS

Lord Jesus,
Like your earthy father, Joseph,
I want to do God's Will,
Even if I may not always understand.

Make me gentle & selfless in the care of
my family & children;
Help me guide them in the toils & troubles,
the happiness & wonders of this life.

Like my Father in heaven,
make me strong in love & forgiveness for those you entrust to my care.

No one can do these things rightly, Lord
without your constant help
& boundless mercy.

Be with me always, & may I come to you in heaven & all my family with me.
Amen.

INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

Do you or anyone you know wish to become Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) is a process for anyone wishing to learn more about the Catholic faith and possibly become Catholic. The RCIA is an exciting spiritual opportunity for parishioners too who may volunteer to be sponsor and companion someone in the RCIA process. Please call Pastoral Associate and RCIA Director Susan Bellotti at 882-2109 if you are interested or know of someone who is a possible candidate. Statistics show that often a simple invitation to someone who may be interested is all that is needed to help them move toward participating in the process.

RCIA classes will resume in September. Consider also going to the St. Paul website (www.stpaulcatholicchurch.org) for additional information.

Summer Scripture Opportunity

Gospel Road Donation Houses

Our St. Paul Youth Ministry is gearing up for its annual Gospel Road mission trip to Cranks Creek, Kentucky where they will draw closer to God through serving others in an economically depressed part of the country. Your prayers and financial support for those making the trip would be most appreciated. Please consider taking a "roofing shingle" (trip donation envelope) from one of the two Gospel Road donation houses located in the vestibule of the church and Activities Center breezeway. Donations will be used to help purchase construction supplies for the projects placed before the team throughout the week: repairing roofs and floors, painting, building wheelchair ramps, and much more. Please return your donation and completed form in a sealed envelope in the donation house. Thank you!

KNOWING AND GROWING IN OUR FAITH

ATTENTIVENESS TO GOD'S PRESENCE

Adoration comes from two Latin words, ad (to) and orare (to speak, to beseech, to pray). In our time, adoration is understood by most people to be reverence, awe and affection directed to God. Any time we speak to God, we can say we are adoring. Indeed the early Church had a sense that Christians pray (adore) always: "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, giving thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thes. 5:16-18). We can adore God as we are driving to work, fixing dinner, mowing the lawn, helping children with their homework, taking a few minutes of rest during a busy day. As people baptized in Christ, our whole life and our whole self is to be an act of adoration—an act of constantly turning ourselves to God, speaking to God through our good actions and holiness of being, raising our hearts and minds to God's faithful and abiding presence in simple, spontaneous prayer.

We are a Eucharistic people,
the body of Christ.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Besides adoring God in and by our daily living, as Catholics we also adore the substantial and enduring presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. This adoration of the Blessed Sacrament presupposes belief in the real presence of Christ. Eucharistic adoration is a public witness to the belief that Christ's risen presence is here among us in this Sacrament. Our time before the Blessed Sacrament is a public expression of our desire to be in union with Christ and a choice to place God above everything else in our life. The Blessed Sacrament is the presence of Christ's risen body. Specifically, Eucharistic adoration immerses us in Christ the Risen One and draws us beyond earthly life to union with the glorious Christ who now sits at God's right hand and reigns eternally. When we keep this resurrection perspective, we grasp that Eucharistic adoration is a reminder to ourselves and others that this life isn't all there is. When we choose to adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, then we affirm that all our life is directed to living in such a way that one day we will be in union eternally with God.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Often adoration and exposition are words used interchangeably, in reality they are two very different but related activities. Adoration as mentioned, can be done anywhere and at any time. Exposition is limited in time and space and regulated by the Church. Exposition means the Blessed Sacrament is visually available for veneration, by placing a consecrated Host in a vessel called a monstrance where the host is visible...Exposition may or may not conclude with Benediction which is a blessing with the Host which can only be given by an ordained person.
